District Overview

The Board of Trustees invites nominations and applications for the position of Chancellor of San Bernardino Community College District (SBCCD).

The District serves 27,000 students through Crafton Hills College and San Bernardino Valley College. For nearly 100 years, the District has provided access to affordable, award-winning higher education and career training programs. The District’s service area includes 22 cities and towns within San Bernardino County.

The District is committed to the economic development of the region, commonly referred to as the Inland Empire, to equitable access and completion through broad community partnerships, and has an intentional and collaborative strategic focus on student completion and program quality through such initiatives as Vision for Student Success, Guided Pathways and its own Free College Promise Program. There is a unified excitement among the District’s constituencies of new opportunities, increasing momentum towards greater community collaboration to improve student achievement, and, under the proactive leadership of the new Chancellor, a greater energy and pride in the San Bernardino Community College District.

Located 60 miles inland from the coast of Southern California, San Bernardino County offers incredible outdoor recreation opportunities across mountain and desert destinations such as Lake Arrowhead, Joshua Tree National Park, and Big Bear Mountain. Los Angeles, San Diego, Palm Springs and Las Vegas, Nevada are easily accessible. The county is also home to the historic US. Route 66 and numerous cultural events and museums.

The Chancellor of the San Bernardino Community College District will be an ethical and collaborative leader, transparent communicator, a trust builder serving as a strong advocate for the District in the region and state, and will address the following:
